

OKLAHOMA FAMILY RESOURCE COALITION

CHILD AND PARENTING CERTIFICATION

Oklahoma Family Resource Coalition provides recognition to individuals who have met a defined criteria indicating a certain level of expertise in child development and parent education by granting three types of certification.

CHILD AND PARENTING ASSISTANT

For the professional with a CDA or defined academic course hours

CHILD AND PARENTING PRACTITIONER

For the professional with a Bachelors degree

CHILD AND PARENTING SPECIALIST

For the professional with a Masters or Doctorate degree

Additional requirements are:

- Work Experience – History of work with parents and children.
- Letters of Reference – Letters that explain the applicant's skills.
- Professional Organization Membership – Proof of current membership.
- Ethics Statement – Ethical standards relevant to the certification.
- Examination – Tests knowledge of child development and parenting.

For Information or questions, contact the Administrative Director at 918-231-4559

Complete the following form to get complete details about certification

PLEASE INCLUDE $10 CHECK MADE OUT TO OFRC FOR THE APPLICATION PACKET.

NAME _____
ADDRESS _____
CITY, STATE AND ZIP _____

MAIL TO:

Brenda Butchee, OFRC Administrative Director
6520 E. 24th St
Tulsa, OK 74129

For more information or questions call 918-231-4559 or email bbutchee@cox.net